

Best House Grand Opening

A grand opening ceremony for a retail massage bed store, Best House, located on 12411 Norwalk Blvd., was held on Wednesday, September 1. Best House specializes in selling Nuga Best brand massage beds that use infrared light and heat technology. The beds are designed to give thermo acupressure massages. According to Mr. Chang, the Nuga Best brand is popular in several countries throughout the world.

Chamber of Commerce President Betty Chacon welcomes business owners Mr. and Mrs. Chang to the City of Norwalk.

Mr. Chang first got into the business because of his wife's positive experience with the Nuga Best massage bed technology and its therapeutic effects.

Visitors enjoy a video presentation showcasing Nuga Best technology.

The Mayor presented Mr. Chang with a Business Spotlight award. The Chamber of Commerce President, Betty Chacon, also presented him with an award.

Best House is open Monday through Friday from 9:30 a.m. – 6:30 p.m., Saturday from 9:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. and closed on Sunday. For more information please call (562) 667-7667.

National Training & Machining Association (NTMA) Training Center

On Friday, September 24, the Mayor, City Manager, staff, and a representative from the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department visited the National Training & Machining Association (NTMA) Training Center. Staff from NTMA provided a tour of the facility, which includes classrooms, computing lab, hand-on training, and job placement assistance. The NTMA Training Center offers a training program to prepare candidates for entry level machining jobs and provide advanced machinist training courses to current industry employees. The Training Center is ranked as the #1 Manufacturing Training Organization in the United States and has trained over 10,000 students since 1968.

For their contribution to the City, the Mayor presented the NTMA Training Center with a Business Spotlight award. Representatives from the NTMA Training Center present during the visit included Executive Director Gina Marinello, President Michael Kerwin, Executive Director of Admissions and Marketing Terry Kerwin, and Director of Education and Training J.R. Ragaisis.
