The Community’s Vision for the City in Economic Development

The City Council adopted the Economic Development Opportunities Plan (the Plan) on October 2, further solidifying the City’s commitment to generate substantial development, significantly revitalize business corridors, strengthen the economic vitality of the City and improve the consumer experience in Norwalk.

The Plan will help to direct the City’s efforts to stimulate activity in identified economic “nodes” throughout the City. The Plan provides a detailed analysis of these strategic areas or economic “nodes” to focus efforts from the City, property owners, investors, developers and other partners. A market study, a demographic analysis and a Strengths Weaknesses Opportunities and Threats (SWOT) analysis are included in the Plan in order to provide the framework for enhancing commercial corridors and other areas of the City.

The adoption came after staff made multiple presentations to business, civic and community groups including the City Commissions and City Committees, the Chamber of Commerce Board, the Chamber of Commerce membership, the Norwalk- La Mirada Unified School District, faith-based organizations, Cerritos College’s Executive Council, at an open Community Forum and to City employees.

Some revitalization and/or development projects will happen organically through meetings between Economic Development staff and property owners, investors, developers, and public agencies. Other projects may require City support to gain momentum. Efforts are underway for the City’s implementation phase that will continue to build a strong and diversified economy while transforming spaces into quality and meaningful places.

The adopted plan is available for download at www.norwalk.org/city-hall/departments/community-development.

City Invites the Community to “Honor our Heroes” on Veterans Day

On Monday, November 12, the City of Norwalk, in partnership with American Legion Post 359, presents the annual Veterans Day ceremony. Keynote speaker will be Frank Medrano, Senior Chief in the United States Navy and a Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Deputy serving out of local Norwalk Station. Other guests include the Norwalk City Band, the 6th Calvary Honor Guard and Lt. Col. Laura J. Skinner, USC Army ROTC, who will conduct a swearing in ceremony for new soldiers. City Council will also present Hometown Heroes banners to residents currently serving in the military.

The event begins at 11 a.m. at Freedom Memorial at City Hall, and is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served.

Business Watch Program

The Department of Public Safety has extended the efforts of our successful Neighborhood Watch Program to include involvement and participation by our business community.

The Business Watch Program is designed to enhance networking and communications between the business community, Norwalk Public Safety, and the Norwalk Sheriff’s Station.

The Department of Public Safety and the Norwalk Sheriff’s Station support businesses in their efforts to actively reduce and prevent crime through cooperation, education, and enforcement. Businesses are provided with crime prevention tools and information to be the solution in preventing crime on their property.

Below are examples of what businesses can do to reduce and prevent crime.

- Changing the physical environment of a building/business are effective tools in reducing and preventing crime.

Call Public Safety at 562-929-5732 when you see panhandling, loitering, drinking, or other illegal activity.

- Do not hand out money, food, etc. which will continue to attract the activity to your business.

- Install security cameras for the exterior and interior.

- Remove and/or lock outside electricity/power sources that are being used for charging of phones and electronic devices.

- Remove advertising blocking the visibility of window areas, especially near the cashiers.

- Increase lighting around the exterior of the building and parking lot.

- Trim vegetation which create hiding areas for loiterers.

Contact the Public Safety Department to find out how you can join the program.
Coyote Sightings in Norwalk

Coyote sightings are increasing in Norwalk and surrounding cities as communities grow and expand into previously undeveloped areas, wild animals (coyotes, raccoons, etc.) are losing much of their natural habitat. As a result, they are becoming more acclimated to urban and suburban surroundings and can navigate access into residential areas and backyards.

Wild animals can easily hurt, maim or even kill household pets that do not have the survival skills or temperament to defend themselves. By nature, coyotes are foragers. If you leave food outside (leftovers, pet food or anything else), it can be a magnet for wild creatures which can create an unsafe encounter with your pet.

If you spot a coyote in your yard or on the street, keep your distance and make sure to keep your pet on leashes that are at most six feet in length. Longer leashes, or no leashes at all, can allow your pet to explore hidden areas and possibly uncover wild foragers. If you leave food outside (leftovers, pet food or anything else), it can create an unsafe encounter with your pet.

Coyote sightings are reported to the Southeast Area Animal Control Authority (SEAACA) and the California Department of Fish & Wildlife to address coyote related issues. SEAACA responds to incidents that involve coyotes that have attacked animals and/ or humans; or are injured, deceased, or are seen near a school/park when children are present. Please be advised that neither SEAACA, nor Fish and Wildlife trap and relocate coyotes.

SEAAACA provides the following guidelines to keep domestic pets safe from wild animals.

- Do not leave food outside. Wild animals can be expert foragers. If you leave food outside (leftovers, pet food or anything else), it can be a magnet for wild creatures which can create an unsafe encounter with your pet.
- Do not let your pet roam outdoors. Monitor your pet when they are outside and bring them in especially when it gets dark.
- Get your pet vaccinated. Wild animals can transmit rabies, fleas, and other diseases. Ensure your pet is vaccinated and is up to date on fleatisch preventative measures.
- Protect your home. Make sure wild animals cannot get into your home through open doors or windows. Many wild animals roam at nighttime, when you and your pets are sleeping. Lock and secure your doors and windows before you go to bed. Also, frequently check your fence line for any damage or holes making it easier for critters to enter your yard.
- Keep your pets on a leash. When hiking or walking with pets, make sure to keep your pet on a leash that are at most six feet in length. Longer leashes, or no leashes at all, can allow your pet to explore hidden areas and possibly uncover wild animals.
- Clear your surroundings. Excessive debris, vegetation, fallen trees and hillside brush and shrubs can be enticing hiding places for wild animals. Clear the areas around your home to avoid unawoned surprise for you and your pets.
- Use items to make a lot of noise to scare the coyote away. Coyotes are scared by loud noises.
- Yell and make eye contact. Never turn away from a coyote.

Youth Curfew
Nothing Good Happens After 10 p.m.

Did you know that the City of Norwalk has daytime and nighttime curfew regulations for minors? Public Safety Officers and Norwalk Sheriff’s Deputies actively enforce day and nighttime curfew regulations within the City. If children are out and about when they should be in school and/or at home during curfew hours, they will be detained and transported back to school, home, and/or the Norwalk Sheriff Station. Both the minor and guardian are each issued a citation to appear in court. Additionally, Norwalk has a municipal code in which parents are financially held responsible for law enforcement services rendered for 2nd and subsequent offenses.

Following are the curfew regulations in Norwalk.

- Minors are exempt from these regulations if they are in the presence of a custodial guardian; have a school-issued permit, going to or from a school-approved activity; or are emancipated.

Daytime Curfew, 8:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.: Minors who are out on any public/private street, alley, park, or business establishments, etc., between the hours of 8 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. when school is in session.

Nighttime Curfew, 9:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.: Minors who are out on any public/private street, alley, park, business establishments, etc., between the hours of 9:00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m. of the following day.

If you have any questions regarding the rules and regulations concerning curfew within the City of Norwalk, please contact School Safety Sergeant Maria Ortega at 562-929-5732 or the Norwalk Sheriff Station at 562-863-8711. Remember, nothing good happens after 10 p.m. Let’s keep our Norwalk youth safe!

Canned Food Donations
Canned Food donations are being accepted to benefit the Social Services Center Emergency Food Cupboard which assists vulnerable individuals in the Norwalk community. With the holidays fast approaching, the need for help becomes greater. Food and non-perishable food items can be dropped off at the Norwalk Social Services Center at 1129 Alondra Boulevard.

Make food donations easy with Instacart, a grocery store delivery service that anyone can use via an app on their phone or website. Instacart users establish an account, choose a local grocery store, select the desired food items and designate the location and time of delivery. There is a service charge. However, orders over $35 are delivered free, and there is also an option for the donor to establish an annual account for a nominal fee to insure unlimited free deliveries.

For details call 562-929-5544.

Hometown Hero
At the October 2nd City Council meeting, Norwalk City Council recognized Lakeside Middle School student, Gabriel Castillo, with the Mayoral Award for his heroism displayed in providing assistance to a classmate in distress. On Thursday, September 13, he performed the Heimlich maneuver on a fellow student who was choking as they were headed back to class after nutrition. As amazing as it is to have helped someone in a life-threatening situation, it is even more so that he did so without ever having taken any emergency training. Gabriel had seen his mother participate in a CPR workshop and remembered the Heimlich maneuver. Simply, his quick thinking was motivated by his desire to help others.

In addition to his recognition at the City Council meeting, Gabriel was also invited to participate in the 35th Annual Arturo Sanchez Sr. Halloween Parade as a “Hometown Hero”.

Needless to say, the entire Lakeside community is extremely proud of Gabriel Castillo!

Help Reduce Teen Drug Abuse
A majority of teenagers experimenting with drugs gain access to them in their parent’s or a relative’s medicine cabinet or kitchen drawer. Prescription medication found in the home may be as dangerous and addictive as illegal drugs sold on the streets.

The Norwalk Department of Public Safety and the Norwalk Sheriff’s Department urge you to check your home for expired or unused medications and dispose of them appropriately, especially if you have young children or teenagers.

The Sheriff’s Department, in conjunction with the Department of Public Safety, is holding a Prescription Medication and Drug Collection Event on Saturday, November 10, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Please take the time to collect all unused and unwanted prescription drugs from your home and bring them to the Norwalk Sheriff Station at 12355 Civic Center Drive. Should you have any questions or need further information, please call Public Safety at 562-929-5732.

On Saturday, September 29, Public Safety Cadets competed in the Battle of the Badges law enforcement scenario competition. The event took place at Hahamonga Park in Pasadena with a total of 21 law enforcement Explorer posts from throughout Southern California demonstrating best practices for managing stressful situations. The scenarios were hosted by several law enforcement agencies, and involved areas, such as Driving Under the Influence, Burglary in Progress, Vehicle Assault, Crime Scene Investigation, Domestic Dispute, 5150, Active Shooter and Suspicious Person. The event also included an obstacle course, which was hosted by the U.S. Navy branch.

The purpose behind the explorer competition is to challenge and expose youth to actual assignments a law enforcement officer may come across during patrol. It also develops teamwork, communication and critical thinking skills. Cadet Sergeant Luis Nava stated, “The most challenging part of the competition was getting everyone on the same page and working as a team.” Although the cadets may have found the scenarios challenging, Cadet Corporal Jose Madrigal adds “The event was a fun learning experience”.
